Mark

The reporter apologises that the decision is taking him longer than he expected to complete. He considers it unlikely that it will now be issued by the end of October and expects to have finalised the decision by mid-December.

Colin

Further to the correspondence below, we are aware that the attached letter has been issued in connection with the Culachy wind farm appeal (PPA-270-2151) which is also being considered by the Reporter, the inquiry for which immediately preceded the Druim Ba inquiry.

Are you able to provide a similar update on the Reporter's anticipated timescale for the Druim Ba decision notice?

Kind regards

Mark

Good evening Colin,

I've brought your details up from the Scottish government website in reference to DPEA case PPA-270-2147 Druim Ba wind farm planning application. Could you provide an update, as to when a proposed outcome is likely to be made please?

Kind Regards

Adrian Burton
